This statement applies to BSE FM Ltd (referred to in this statement as 'the Business'). The information included in the statement refers to the financial year 2020-2021.

BUSINESS STRUCTURE

BSE FM is located in Haywards Heath and is controlled by the board of directors.

BSE FM is a Facilities Management company, work is not seasonal.

The labour supplied to the business in pursuance of its operation is carried out in UK.

DEFINITIONS

The business considers that modern slavery encompasses:

- Human trafficking;
- Forced work, through mental or physical threat;
- Being owned or controlled by an employer through mental or physical abuse of the threat of abuse;
- Being dehumanised, treated as a commodity or being bought or sold as property;
- Being physically constrained or to have restriction placed on freedom of movement.

COMMITMENT

The business acknowledges its responsibilities in relation to tackling modern slavery and commits to complying with the provisions in the Modern Slavery Act 2015. The business understands that this requires an ongoing review of both its internal practices in relation to its labour force and, additionally, its supply chains.

The business does not enter into business with any other business, in the United Kingdom or abroad, which knowingly supports or is found to involve itself in slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour.

No labour provided to the business in the pursuance of the provision of its own services is obtained by means of slavery or human trafficking. The business strictly adheres to the minimum standards required in relation to its responsibilities under relevant employment legislation in United Kingdom.

SUPPLY CHAINS

In order to fulfil its activities, the business's main supply chains include those related to the installation and maintenance of buildings facilities across various sectors.

POTENTIAL EXPOSURE

The business considers its main exposure to the risk of slavery and human trafficking to exist in its clients and contactors, who are external to the company.

In general, the business considers its exposure to slavery/human trafficking to be relatively limited. Nonetheless, it has taken steps to ensure that such practices do not take place in its business nor the business of any business that supplies goods and/or services to it.

STEPS

The business carries out due diligence processes in relation to ensuring slavery and/or human trafficking does not take place in its business or supply chains, including conducting a review of the controls of its suppliers.

The business has not, to its knowledge, conducted any business with another business which has been found to have involved itself with modern slavery.

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

The business has set the following key performance indicators to measure its effectiveness in ensuring modern slavery is not taking place in the business or its supply chains.

- Ensuring that the business own employees are not facing breaches to their human rights.

POLICIES

The business has the following policies which further define its stance on modern slavery:

- Migrant workers’ policy.
- Equal opportunities.

TRAINING

The business provides training to staff to effectively implement its stance on modern slavery through induction process.

SLAVERY COMPLIANCE OFFICER

The business has a Slavery Compliance Officer, to whom all concerns regarding modern slavery should be addressed, and who will then undertake relevant action with regard to the business obligations in this regard.

This statement is made in pursuance of Section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will be reviewed for each financial year.
